

Total Office Products Pty Ltd

PAPER IMPACT STATEMENT

January 2019 – December 2019

Total Office Products Pty Ltd purchase of more than 499 tonnes of Australian made copy paper over (12 months), supports the following environmental, social and economic benefits:

Environment

360 tonnes of greenhouse gas emissions offset by using Climate Active certified carbon neutral paper

Up to 27 tonnes of local office waste paper was recycled, which would otherwise be diverted to local landfill or exported

Equivalent to 64 tonnes of CO₂ landfill emissions saved

Compliance with Sustainable Forestry Management certifications (PEFC™ or FSC®)

Approximately 50% of energy used at the Mill of manufacture is generated from renewable sources

Community

More than 5,780 full time equivalent Australian jobs*

More than 2,380 regional jobs*

Economics*

$756,930 direct contribution to Australia's economy (GDP)

$374,720 contribution to regional economies (GDP)

$375,550 contribution to the revenues of Governments in Australia

Peter Williams
Chief Operating Officer

* Economic & Government Revenue Impacts: Australian Paper, Western Research Institute. January 2017, pp.3 & 4 (including flow on)
 Recycled paper: A comparison of greenhouse gas emissions associated with locally made and imported paper products - Project report, Indufor, April 2016